

The National Taxidermists Association

Taxidermist of the Year Award

Old Man of Mikeno Mask Award

This award is limited to taxidermists who are in the Masters Division and are present at the Convention, and is selected by the judges collectively from all the entries in the Masters Division. In making the selection judges are not bound by any numerical score a mount may have received. The judges will make the selection based on the mount overall merit. Winners will receive a replica of the Old Man of Mikeno Death Mask casted by Carl Akeley. (Sponsored by the National Taxidermists Association.)
